SOMEWHAT OF A SWEARER.

A Gentleman From This City Had The Devil in Him.

An old man was at the depot yesterday on anything but a still hunt for an erring daughter of Eve and his, that had eloped with some gay Lothario who had made the fatal mistake of not fixing the old man.

He had been in Raleigh all day trying to locate his Hebe, who before committing matrimony with "an unknown cuss" (as the fond father characterized the man in the case), had stood guard over the evolutions of some of Mr. Cone's looms at the Greensboro cotton mills.

Not finding the delinquents here he had decided to bombard Goldsboro next, with his battery of 31-inch lingual guns loaded to the muzzle with smoky black powder of sulphurous language, strong enough to cut a swath in the flintiest part of the pebble at Gibraltar.

Sorry for Romeo are we, if that fond father ever gets a twist in his neck before the hangman reaches it in the natural course, according to Papa's prediction. For papa was unmistakably mad. And if he is as good a pugilist as he is a swearer the grease spot he leaves of the delinquent young chap when he gets through with him will not be loud enough to attract ants.

As the train moved out the old Blue-beard cut a blue streak of profanity in the ozone so sulphurous that it strangled Baggageman Bunch, and disappeared over Boylan's bridge in a zig-zag, forked flame of brimstone that utterly eclipsed the electrical display with which Mother Nature tried to warn people of the other storm that was approaching.—Morning Post.

Hold up, brother! Confact-o-the-business is, as we were just going on to say, we believe our Raleigh contemporary is mistaken. There are some here who are pretty glib and some are glibber'n some others, but we don't believe there is any one here who can cuss like that.

THE COLLEGE CROWDED.

Additional Room to be Made at Guilford College.

The trustees of Guilfoed College met at the college yesterday. They found that the large number of students who have entered filled the capacity of the institution, and improvements were ordered by which fifty more can be accommodated.

The board examined the new water works and were much pleased with the water. A new system of sewerage is now being put in and will be complete in a few days.

The charge for medical attention has heretofore been one dollar per term for each student, and from this small amount the institution has derived a profit. It is believed with the new sanitary improvements the health of the place will yet be improved.

This session of Guilford College is the most promising in its history. Continued success to the grand old institution.

"Ben Hur."

"Ben Hur" in all its glory will be seen here tomorrow night at the Academy. No work of late years has created such a sensation or has caused so much discussion among all classes of society. The scenes vividly portrayed are all taken from celebrated paintings in the art galleries of the old world and may be said to have inaugurated a new era in the reproduction of sacred views. The tickets are selling well and an enjoyable evening may be looked forward to.

All children entering the city schools Thursday will bring with them paper and pencil, or slate and pencil. A list of the necessary books will be given by the teachers on the first day.

All white teachers of the city schools will please meet the superintendent at the Lindsay street school on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. They will bring examinations prepared for those pupils who failed to pass at the close of last session.

FORTY UNABLE TO LEAVE BERTHS

The Cries of Delirium—Only One Physician to a Whole Train Load Of Sick Soldiers.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Utica, August 30—The Eighth New York regiment passed here at nine o'clock this morning. The men are suffering intensely. Forty of them are too sick to leave their berths and some are on the point of death. Cries of delirium were plainly heard as the train passed.

It was a veritable pest train, and there was only one physician in charge of two hundred and thirty-six men, who refused outside assistance.

Arrangements have been hastily made this morning for their reception. Hospital arrangements have been made for one hundred and thirty men and ambulances and other conveyances will be on hand and every possible attention will be given the troops.

GRAPE AND FRUIT SHIPMENTS.

Southern Pines Closes a Most Successful Season.

The prominence of Southern Pines as a grape and fruit growing section is manifesting itself with each succeeding year by its shipments to the northern markets, and the quality of its products. What a few years ago were thickets of pines now are long stretches of orchards and vineyards, and the immense acreage is being yearly increased. The soil is thoroughly adapted to the cultivation of all classes of grapes, fruits and berries.

The season has just closed and the shipments make a splendid showing. In the number of pounds they show an increase of over 300 per cent. over last year. This is a magnificent showing and exemplifies the energy and thrift of the growers in and around Southern Pines. The following are the official figures of the shipments by express for the season just closed: Blackberries, 2,548 crates; peaches, 12,203 crates; grapes, 7,565 crates; total crates, 22,316, aggregating in pounds, 692,925.

Three-fifths as much as the above were shipped by fast freight in ventilated refrigerator cars. The shipments for last year were 6,402 crates or 227,175 pounds. The season, as can be judged from the above figures, has been a highly successful one. The prices while not ruling as high as heretofore, have been quite satisfactory and profitable. We are gratified to note the increasing prosperity of Southern Pines in its great industries. —News and Observer.

Bids for doing the work will be opened next Saturday at Charlotte, Mr. Odell tells us, and work will commence in September. It is the intention of the building committee to have the work done before the next commencement.

Mr. Montague Goes to Red Springs.

Every one that knows Mr. J. E. Montague and every one that knows what a delightful place Red Spring is as a summer resort will be glad to know that the two—the man and the place—are going to be together. Mr. Montague has been at Cleveland Springs during the summer, but now he goes to Red Springs to manage the hotel there. Red Springs is without doubt one of the most charming places to spend the winter in the state. The fishing is fine, the hunting the best that the state affords and the climate good. —Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Montague was up to about a year ago manager of the Benbow House, in this city. He has many friends here who will be glad to learn that he is to remain in the state.

TOLD THAT HE MIGHT DIE.

While Speaking Ex-Judge Boykin Was Warned by a Hearer.

"The death of Judge Boykin was a great shock to me," said Solicitor Pou, who came to Raleigh with the remains Sunday. "I was with him nearly all the day Friday just before his death. He was in fine spirits and we went to the speaking at Peacock's Cross Roads together. He spoke two hours. It was a great speech—calm, dispassionate but very effective. He held the crowd motionless in their seats almost during his entire speech.

"Just as he was concluding, he said: "My friends, I must apologize to you for this effort. It is the second political speech I have attempted to make in fourteen years, but I beg to assure you it will not be my last.'

"Mr. Harry Johnson, an old man just 80, was sitting near by, and said: 'You should not say that Judge.'

"Why?' said Judge Boykin.

"Because,' said Mr. Johnson, 'you may die tomorrow.'

"That is true, my old friend,' said the judge; 'but if I am to die tomorrow my love for my state is so great that I must try and speak again today.'

"Little did the crowd dream that the speech they had just heard would be the last to fall from the lips of this good man. He was an able and humane judge, and the state sustains a great loss in his death

"His fine oration, delivered as by one who was performing an important duty, made an impression on those who heard it which will last for years to come."—Morning Post.

are words that are often heard after people have tried Orange Phosphate at our fountain. Orange Phosphare is so common that it takes something extra to call forth such remarks. AS TO COLORED MEN.

The Telegram has received a letter from a colored subscriber in which he says he sees we are inclined to "rebuke and wrongfully charge the negroes with having anything to do with the ruling of this government," etc.

The Telegram has never, and will never "rebuke" a colored man who tries to be a good citizen. We respect those colored men who are striving to instill good morals into the colored youth, those teachers and professors in our colored institutions of learning who are faithfully doing their work.

Not a line of abuse of the colored race, as a race, has ever appeared in these columns, and never will while this editor is at the helm. And if the subscriber referred to takes our denunciation of the black fiend in Wilmington, who defames the character of white women to mean the colored race, he is mistaken, in so far as there are colored men found who repudiate that slander. We are, in other words, guilty of the "rebuking" act only so far as the colored people endorse the negro, Manly, editor of the Wilmington Record, which it appears the colored ministers in Wilmington have done.

Such things are a digrace, and we have, in a former editorial, placed the blame where it belongs, on the unscrupulous and designing white men who have made it possible for such things to be. We have plainly said we don't blame the negroes for taking offices, if they can get them. They do the voting for the republicans and are entitled to part of the spoils, and the larger part, when their party is in power.

Who educates the colored men? Who builded their asylums and hospitals? The white people. The white people are better to the colored race than they are to themselves. Who compose the democratic party? White people. Who are the republicans? Colored people. Behold the spectacle of ingratitude! And please distinctly understand, this is not a bid for colored votes.

The records of the two parties stand before the people. Both roads are blazed out. Take your choice.

The Charlotte News come out with a righteous kick against the practice of some North Carolina newspapers of taking editorial matter bodily from other papers and using it without giving due credit. It is a practice which should be stopped. It is sometimes done through carelessness or forgetfulness, and sometimes an error is made and credit given the wrong paper; but where a paper fills its editorial columns every day with borrowed stuff, which is never returned, it cannot be attributed to error, carelessness or forgetfulness, and it makes thinking and working newspaper men weary.

Mr. Walter R. Henry, a former democrat who was disappointed in not getting the foreign appointment best suited to his tastes, left the democratic party and joined the poplists. For doing so he has been rewarded by the republican administration with a federal office. Mr. Henry writes a letter to the Charlotte News and closes with the suggestion that it would be a wise thing for the democratic papers to let him alone, politically. And why not? We are glad he mentioned it. He has already traded and got the difference. Why, certainly! "Ephraim is joined to his idols; let him alone!"

The Charlotte Observer has, only temporarily, we hope, suspended the Monday edition of that paper. It was started to keep the people posted as to the progress of the war and now that the war is over, its mission has been fulfilled. It was commendable on the part of the Observer and it cost money and much hard labor. We shall greatly miss the Monday Observer.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Durham Sun, is ten and a half years old. It is in its prime, looks healthy and evidently has a fair prospect for many more years of usefulness ahead of it. Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to the ever-shining Sun.

Alamance Nominations.

Graham, N. C., August 29—The democratic mass meeting of Alamance county was held here Saturday, and the following ticket was nominated:

Representative, W. H. Carroll; sheriff, L. B. McAdams; clerk of the Superior court, J. D. Kernodle; register of Deeds, C. C. Thompson; coroner, Dr. Patterson; surveyor, L. H. Holt; commissioners, Gaston Love, J. A. Turrentine and C. P. Albright.

Resolutions were passed endorsing the state and national democratic platforms and denouncing negro control of public schools and charitable institutions.—Special Cor. of the Morning Post.

Miss Antiquate—Perhaps you are not aware of the fact that my family came over in the Mayflower.

Miss Cutting—Indeed! But then I suppose you were too young at the time to remember much about the trip. —Chicago News.

Commenting upon the plan of a westerner to provide for the building of two battleships at the expense of the boys and girls of the United States. The Chicago Times-Herald observes that "a battleship in round figures costs $3,000,000. As it was proposed that each boy should contribute a dime, this would require a population of 30,000,000 boys, each one a patriot and each possessing a dime. The same statistics apply to the girls' battleship."

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

HOBSON AGAIN AT SANTIAGO.

He Will Attempt to Raise the Two Sunken Spanish Battleshps.

Santiago, Aug. 29, 8.30 p. m—The steamer Seguranca arrived this morning, bringing Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, who will superintend the efforts to float the sunken Spanish cruisers Cristobal Colon and Infanta Teresa.

Lieutenant Hobson had an enthusiastic informal reception from General Lawton, with whom he will be quartered while in Santiago.

The Seguranca brought also Capt. Leigh and 40 men of the signal service corps, who will relieve Colonel Greene.

Work will be begun at once on the military telephone and telegraph lines along the coast of eastern Cuba. The Seguranca brought a cargo of fresh beef.

Today Gen. Lawton issued an order releasing the largest wharf in the harbor, lately wholly occupied by the United States government, and returning it to the use of the local merchants and shippers. Trading vessels had experienced great inconvenience and delay in consequence of insufficient wharf facilities, and many ships in the harbor are awaiting a place to unload. The special hardship arises from the excessive harbor charges.

The beautiful Alameda boulevard, 200 feet wide and encircling Santiago bay, now occupied by the Second immune regiment, will be released to the city as soon as the immunes can be moved to the camp, two miles out. The boulevard is a fashionable resort for driving and promenading.

Residents of the city and provinces to the number of about 8,000 now in Costa Rica and Jamaica, are expected to return here during the next three weeks, and preparations are general for a house-cleaning all around.

A whole battalion of the Fifth Regulars, brought by the Knickerbacker, from Tampa has been placed in the hospital vacated by the Spaniards, the yellow fever having appeared among them. The Knickerbocker has been quarantined. She touched at a small Cuban port on her way from the United States, and was not inspected at Tampa. Five cases of the fever have developed.

A large quantity of government supplies left here by the commissary department, will be distributed among the poor. General Wood said: "It seems impossible that so much destitution could exist after the work that has been done, but I find extreme distress in the lower classes of the city and am giving orders to give all possible relief. Large quantities of food are being distributed."

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. Holton.

In reply to a correspondent who wants to know the rules for the "stamp flirtation," The Boston Globe emphatically declares: "The first rules is that putting the stamp on a letter designedly anywhere excepting on the right hand upper corner of the envelope indicates that the writer is a fool."

The Grandest Remedy

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovesy is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Some one has suggested to the New York Herald that the account of the reception to the returned war vessels on Saturday last, in which function Captain Sigsbee and the St. Paul were overlooked, should have been headed: "They Did Not Remember the Maine."

The finest line of Sponges ever shown in the city,

In a Buddhist Nunnery.

Sir Charles Gordon's "Recollections of Thirty-nine Years In the Army" contains this anecdote: "In 1860, at Tien-tsin, the two Gordons, when seeking for hospital sites, came across a Buddhist nunnery. Despite the warnings of one of the inmates, who appeared in boy's clothes, they entered the building and found that the inmates all wore male clothing. The Buddhist women were greatly shocked at the intrusion.

"'Our regret,' says Sir Charles, 'was real. Explanations were exchanged. We were informed that the community within adopted male costume as an indication that they not only renounced the world, but with it the emblems of their sex. We were 'received' by the lady superior, tea and cakes offered to and partaken of by us. We were then permitted to visit the 'private chapel,' and finally we parted from the religieuses on the best of terms."

Corrected In Rhyme.

Thackeray was much pestered by the autograph hunter, says Hodder in his "Recollections." He disliked above all things to write in an autograph album, and often refused those who asked him to do so and sometimes rather brusquely.

On one occasion the owner of an album, a young lady, was fortunate. Thackeray took her book to his room in order to look it over. Written on a page he found these lines:

Mont Blanc is the monarch of mountains—
They crowned him long ago,
But who they got to put it on
Nobody seems to know.
ALBERT SMITH.

Under these lines Mr Thackeray wrote:

A HUMBLE SUGGESTION.
I know that Albert wrote in hurry—
To criticise I scarce presume,
But yet methinks that Lindley Murray
Instead of "who" had written "whom."
W. M. THACKERAY.

What Italy Needed.

Shortly before his death, which occurred in 1866, Massimo d'Azeglio, statesman, orator, poet, the painter of "Orlando Furioso," but, above all, the trusty friend and valued counselor of Victor Emmanuel, was talking to a Frenchman, who congratulated him upon the unification of Italy.

"Yes," was the reply, "we have made a new Italy; now we must endeavor to make new Italians."

Providing For an Emergency.

"What will you have?" inquired the waiter as Mr. Heyroob scanned the French bill of fare.

"Waal," he answered, placing his finger over an item, "ye kin bring me some o' that. But don't go away, 'cause if it tastes like it looks in print I'll have to try somethin else."—Detroit Free Press.

Signs.

"Was that man ever a farmer?" inquired Mrs. Corntossel.

"No," answered her husband very positively.

"But he's always talkin about the delights of livin in the country."

"That's what shows he never was a farmer."—Washington Star.

NOT DEAD IN RANDOLPH.

An Enthusiastic Convention Puts Out a Strong Ticket.

Asheboro, N. C., Aug. 29—The democrats of Randolph county are not all dead yet, as evidenced by the large attendance at the convention just held.

True and tried democrats, disgusted ex-republicans and ex-populists composed the convention. The courtroom was filled to overflowing with intelligent, hard working men and the sessions were entirely harmonious. Mr. P. Wood was called to the chair as temporary chairman and was afterward made permanent chairman.

Our honored veteran democratic leader, Dr. J. M. Worth, entered the hall amidst prolonged applause. He addressed the convention in an earnest manner and gave it the benefit of his wise counsels.

The following gentlemen were nominated:

For the Legislature—O. L. Sapp and T. J. Redding.

For Clerk of the Superior Court—J. W. Birkhead.

For Sheriff—J. N. Cogle.

For Register of Deeds—J. D. Leonard.

For Treasurer—B. F. Newby.

For Coroner—Dr. C. H. Lewis.

For Surveyor—J. M. Johnson.

For Commissioners—B. H. Lassiter, T. L. Chisholm, J. D. Delk.

The convention unanimously endorsed the nomination of W. D. Rush for solicitor of the Eighth judicial district, and J. C. Black, of Moore, for senator.

This is a strong ticket and we propose to elect it.

O. L. Sapp and W. D. Rush made telling speeches.

We will prepare dinner for five thousand people, whom we expect to be here on September 8th to hear ex-Governor Jarvis, Hon. A. Leazer and others.

Resolutions were adopted re-affirming state and national platforms and denouncing the present vicious state government.—Special to News and Observer.

A SAVORY SOLDIER.

A White Member from New Hanover Led a Gay and Festive Career

The white member from New Hanover, who has been masquerading as a soldier in the Second regiment, has led a gay and festive career since he enlisted, as he was wont to do before he joined the army.

David Sutton, of fragrant memory, for it is he and none other, has been up to all manner of innocent pranks, from sleeping on guard duty to biting chunks of flesh out of petty officers. He had the luck to escape punishment, upon a technicality, for the offense first mentioned, but his good fortune deserted him when he came to trial on the other charge. As our correspondent at Tybee intimates, he will, no doubt, have to pay dear for his skylarking and will get little sympathy in his tribulations.

Besides having been a candidate for mayor of Wilmington some time ago, our correspondent asserts, Private Sutton, as we are informed, was city attorney for the same city up to the time he became a soldier. Besides he acquired some fame as a law maker in the late fusion legislature, as whipper snapper to the governor. But all his experience as a maker and interpreter of laws failed to save our Dave when he turned cannibal.

Private Sutton will be missed from the legislature next winter, but possibly this affliction, like others that have been endured, can be survived by a long suffering public.—Morning Post.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Elevators have now been rendered safe in case of a fall by means of air cushions, It's rather hard to believe, but they say that in a test made in New York recently, in which an elavator was allowed to drop 20 stories, the fall of 300 feet did not break eggs lying on a marble slab in the middle of the car nor spill water from a glass.

AS TO INVESTIGATION.

It is Not Likely There Will be a General Inquiry Soon.

Washington, August 27—There were no new indications today that a general investigation of the army administration would be ordered, except the announcement that an examination would be made of the conditions at Chickamauga Park hospitals.

There is no cessation of talk in the war department for and against a general inquiry. Secretary Alger has said nothing to indicate that he is unqualifiedly favorable to investigation, and Adjutant General Corbin may be set down as opposed to it. Subsistence officers, who have been criticised severely as one, except the surgeon-general and assistants, profess to be ready for investigation, but they assert that there is positively no basis for criticism.

Twenty-eight motor cycles participated in a race recently between Etampes and Chartres, France. The distance, going and returning, was about sixty-two miles. The winning vehicle, driven by an eight-horse power motor, with two cylinders, made the round trip in about two minutes and ten seconds less than two hours. The speed was thirty-one and two-thirds miles per hour. This, it is said, beats the best previous record for road carriages.

Judge E. W. Timberlake returned to the city this morning and opened court at nine o'clock.

Mrs. G. A. Oglesby, of Durham, spent last night in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. L. Grissom.

Miss Flora Cooper went to Autryville today to visit her sister, Miss Juanita, who is teaching a music class there.

An excursion from Winston, Madison, and Greensboro left here this morning at 10:45 for Wilmington with a good crowd on board.

Col. Lee Hall, of the First U. S. volunteers, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Dr. Hall, at the residence of Dr. W. P. Beall on Asheboro street. Col. Hall is a native of Greensboro but for some time has been in Texas.

All the colored teachers of the city schools will be at the school buildings on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of examining and grading all new pupils and all old pupils who do not know to what grade they belong.

G. A. Grimsley, Supt.

Miss Mary Kennette, of Raleigh, passed through at noon today returning home from a visit to Pilot Mountain. Miss Kennette visited in Greensboro a short while ago and made many friends who hope she may soon visit the "City of Flowers" again.

W. B. Allen is moving today from his former quarters on East Market street to the house near the C. F. & Y. V. depot, formerly occupied by Mrs. Ballard. Here the Allen will in the future make its home. Mr. Allen says he will be ready for business in a few days.

Brockmann School of Music.

The opening of the fall session of the Brockmann School of Music will take place on Thursday of this week. This school is well known. It is exclusively a music school and instruction in either piano, harmony or string instruments is thorough. The teachers are specialists and their reputation is established. The people of Greensboro should appreciate as they do, the fact that we have such eminent musicians in our midst who make it a business to teach this branch of education.

The Allen House Sold.

A large crowd assembled at the Allen House yesterday to witness the sale of the building, but bidders were scarce and the bids were low. This was evidently due to the fact that the building must be removed at once from the lot. The building was purchased by Mr. W. R. Land for a mere nominal sum, who sold it a short while afterwards to Messrs. Wharton & McAlister at a slight advance in the price paid for it. Arrangements are being made today to move the building at once.

Will Go, After All.

The Alamance "good roads" excursion to Charlotte will be run tomorrow. It was announced a day or two ago that the railroad had annuled the contract, but this morning it is learned they have reconsidered the matter and the train will run tomorrow.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. Has Been Here Before.

Ben Hur which is to be given in the Academy of Music Wednesday night for the benefit of the Buena Vista Lodge I. O. O. F., was given in the court house here sometime ago. Capt. Rider's voice is well adapted to the piece and the stereoptican views were perfect. Ben Hur is a thrilling novel and was well produced. The Telegram mentions this of its own accord that its readers may not conflict "Ben Hur" with "Prof Lomady's fake" which was given in the court house a short while ago. Let a good crowd be at the Academy of Music Wednesday night.

The Trustees Meet.

The following gentlemen passed through today enroute to Durham to attend the meeting of the board of trustees of Trinity College: Drs. John R. Brooks, of Salisbury, and W. S. Creasy of Winston, Judge W. A. Montgomery, of Charlotte, and W. R. Odell, of Concord. Drs. Dred Peacock, T. N. Ivey, and W. L. Grissom went from here.
